A Buggy Ride. Is It a Pleasure?

That depends largely upon the vehicle in which the ride is taken. If the vehicle is old, if it rattles and jars, and if the draft is heavy, much of the pleasure is lost. But if it has the ball bearing axles, rubber tires, patent springs and other improvements of the HIGH GRADE, UP-TO-DATE vehicle, then it is a pleasure indeed.

We are showing a new line of High Grade Bikes and Pneumatic Buggies, Runabouts, Traps, Phaetons, Surreys, Speeding Carts, Bikes, etc. Also a full line of Harness, Whips, Robes, Lamps, Rugs, Shades, etc.

Rubber Tires

We have added to our equipment a complete RUBBER TIRE outfit, and are now prepared to put on all sizes of Rubber Tires. New Channels and Rubbers put on, or old Channels re-rubbed. We use the "KELLY-SPRINGFIELD" TIRE (two wire), the best and most satisfactory Tire made.

LETTER FROM A SOLDIER IN THE PHILIPPINES.

DESCRIBES HIS SURROUNDINGS
IN CHIEF TOWN OF MIN-DANAO.

How the Dato Mandi of the Moros
Attended Fourth of July Races
With His Many Wives.

Mr. J. F. Kennedy of the advertising department of The Republican recently received a very interesting letter from Willard H. Henderson of Company E, Thirty-first U. S. V. Infantry, now stationed at Zamboanga, Island of Mindanao, Philippines. Mr. Willard was formerly a resident of Honolulu and the portions of the letter here given will interest a good many people in Honolulu. The letter is dated July 29th, and among other things the writer says:

"None of the cities in the Philippines can be compared with the metropolis of the Hawaiian Islands. None are near as beautiful and picturesque as Honolulu. I have been in Manila, Island of Luzon; Holo, Island of Panay; Jolo, Island of Jolo (Holo); Zamboanga, Cotta-Bato, Pollok and Parang—Parang on the Island of Mindanao. Of course none of the cities in the Philippines can be compared with Honolulu in population but Manila.

"Zamboanga was at one time the second largest city in the Philippines. About four years ago the greater part of it was destroyed by fire. It has gained at least three-fourths in population since the Thirty-first U. S. V. Infantry landed here off the good ship City of Peking, December 10th. We found the city in a very dirty condition; no Americans in it but two companies of the Twenty-third U. S. Infantry, which we relieved. The soldiers were immediately set to work street cleaning, etc. The Filipinos and Moros watched us in surprise, saying to each other, 'Americas much care for work.' At first we could buy from ten to twenty bananas for 1 cent; now we pay 1 cent, Mexican, for one banana.

"In the market the price to an American is double the price to natives. I asked a Filipino who had been very friendly to me why it was. He promptly said it was because the Americans had much more money than the natives. Eggs were formerly 1 cent apiece; they now sell for 5 cents. Chickens were 10 cents, but now they sell for 50 cents.

"The natives tap the coconut trees and get a drink called 'tuba,' which they sell to the soldiers. It is very intoxicating and has been the cause of many an American soldier getting one month in the guard house at hard labor and forfeiting his month's pay. A number of the boys have served sentences in the guard house in consequence of fighting and quarreling with the natives. 'Most all of the natives address the soldiers as 'John,' and if a soldier looks cross at them they say 'cane calaboose,' knowing all they have to do is to complain to the officers and the soldiers are put in the guard house to await a trial, which in most cases ends in the soldier getting one month at hard labor.

"The Filipino and Moro, if he has anything at all, is courted and treated with much more respect than an American soldier. I have seen a Moro enter the quarters of an officer, pull out a chair and calmly seat himself, cross his legs, then pull out his cigarettes and light one. If an enlisted man was to do such an act he would be very severely reprimanded.

"The chief of the Moro tribe here is Dato Mandi. In looks he resembles a Spanish bull fighter. He is most always dressed in a tight-fitting suit of black velvet, with a skull cap of samo and is the leading sport of this place. If you visit him at his home near here you will be entertained with horse races, bull and cock fights. He is also a great monte player. He has a very fine set of dominoes. I believe that is his favorite game. His horse won the officers' stakes in the races held here July 4th, which was field day here. He has about fifty wives, and such a show of feminine beauty and loveliness some of the Moros told me they never saw, but I confess I failed to see it. They were the attraction of the day. They came marching out to the parade ground, single file, like as many geese. Some wore large pantaloons and some had about five yards of calico wrapped around them. Each one carried a large black cotton parasol, and in the mouth of each dusky beauty was a cigarette or a large chew of beetle nut and lime. Some of them had large holes in their ears in which they carried cigarettes. Dato Mandi is the heir to the sultanate of Mindanao.

"The local president of Zamboanga is a Filipino, one Senor Ramos. He is a well-bred and extremely polite Filipino. He is married and has a lovely home at Santa Maria, a suburb of Zamboanga. He is having a large house built in town.

HE OWES HIS LIFE TO THE FORE-
THOUGHT OF A COMPANION.

While on a camping trip in Webster county, Mr. S. I. Stamp of Norman-town, W. Va., had a severe attack of bloody flux. He says: "I firmly believe that I owe my life to the fore-thought of one of the company who had taken along a bottle of Chamber-lain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy." Moral—Procure a bottle of this remedy before leaving home. It cannot be obtained when on a hunting, fishing or prospecting trip. Neither can it be obtained while on board the cars or steamship and at such times and places it is most likely to be needed. The safe way is to have it with you. Thousands of travelers never leave home on a journey without it. For sale by all dealers and druggists. Benson, Smith & Co., general agents Territory of Hawaii.

The meeting of the Woman's Board has been postponed until September 11th.

W. J. Steward, for three years in the fire department, has been appointed to the mounted patrol.

Chas. Frazier of the Bergstrom Music Company goes to Hilo today, expecting to be away two weeks.

A very cheap invigorating drink may be obtained by using Sparklets in drinking water. All drug stores keep Sparklets.

H. C. Halverson of the mounted patrol is acting lieutenant in place of Lieutenant Bohlman, who is away on his vacation.

Pianos are in such demand in Honolulu that the Bergstrom Music Company has just imported a large shipment which they propose renting at reasonable rates. They tell you about them in an ad in another column.

OLD RACING DAYS RECALLED.

Judge Wilcox Tells of a Boat Race in Honolulu in 1872.

In speaking of boat racing in former years Judge W. L. Wilcox said that he well remembers one race he took part in in 1872. It was a race for two men in a boat and three boats started. They were not racing boats, as those were hardly known in those days. The contestants had to hire shore boats from the boat boys. The race was from a vessel anchored off the Oceanic wharf to and around the spar buoy and return. In this particular race there were three boats entered. They were manned as follows: S. B. Dole and Alfred Carter, W. L. Wilcox and Ned Bush, "Herbie" Whitney and C. L. Clarke. The judge and his partner won; the prizes being little golden cars to be worn as watch charms.
